

STAFF TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT POLICY

1. PURPOSE

- 1.1 Cedar Creek Electrical Pty Ltd ('Cedar Creek Electrical ') recognises the importance of training and developing its staff.
- 1.2 Cedar Creek Electrical understands that its employees are key to its success as an organisation. It therefore encourages its staff to be continually improving their skills and abilities both through on-the-job and off-the-job training.
- 1.3 Cedar Creek Electrical acknowledges that training and development of staff provides benefits both to its employees in terms of their overall career and prospects for advancement within the organisation, as well as being central to the success it is able to achieve as a business.
- 1.4 This Staff Training and Development Policy (Policy) sets out what Cedar Creek Electrical may offer employees through training and development opportunities aimed at promoting the growth of individuals, teams and achieving success for the organisation.

2. COMMENCEMENT OF POLICY

- 2.1 This Policy will commence on 25/07/2022. It replaces all other policies dealing with staff training and development (whether written or not).

3. APPLICATION OF THE POLICY

- 3.1 This Policy applies to all employees of Cedar Creek Electrical . This Policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment.

4. TRAINING

- 4.1 Cedar Creek Electrical may require you to undertake specific training related to your current position, or as a prerequisite for performing a different position, for example if you are promoted to a higher position. Any such training may be carried out either at Cedar Creek Electrical 's premises or externally.
- 4.2 Training opportunities may also arise as part of your performance review. Cedar Creek Electrical encourages employees to propose suggestions for employment-related training to assist their development.
- 4.3 You are required to have the permission of Cedar Creek Electrical prior to either signing up, or attending, a training course. If you fail to obtain permission, Cedar Creek Electrical at its discretion, may decide not to reimburse you for any course fees you have paid or discipline you for any unauthorised time you have taken off work (up to and including termination of employment).

5. HOW DOES STAFF DEVELOPMENT WORK?

- 5.1 Individual staff training and development needs should be discussed during Cedar Creek Electrical 's staff development review process. The review process is designed to:

- a) encourage constructive dialogue between staff members and their supervisors;
- b) enhance the staff member's professional development;
- c) clarify job responsibilities and performance goals/expectations;
- d) establish appropriate development and performance objectives;
- e) help staff identify a possible career path for themselves;
- f) identify ways in which Cedar Creek Electrical 's organisation and/or operation might enable individuals to improve their performance;
- g) ensure that information on job performance and achievements is recorded in each staff member's employment history; and
- h) provide a basis for decisions on remuneration.

6. WHAT CAN Cedar Creek Electrical OFFER?

6.1 Cedar Creek Electrical may offer any of the following opportunities for staff development:

- a) an induction program when you join Cedar Creek Electrical , to understand the manner in which Cedar Creek Electrical operates, including what contribution you are expected to make;
- b) various degrees of support as you develop the competence and capability for which you have been employed;
- c) the opportunity to develop new competencies and capabilities relevant to your employment with Cedar Creek Electrical , and which enhance your career prospects and lifelong learning both within and outside Cedar Creek Electrical ;
- d) to participate in Cedar Creek Electrical 's staff development review process with your line manager, including identifying opportunities for ongoing training and/or support, an annual review of your previous development programs and identification of plans for the future; and
- e) an exit interview when you leave Cedar Creek Electrical , so that your comments may be incorporated into the development programs of other members of staff.

7. WHAT Cedar Creek Electrical EXPECTS FROM YOU

7.1 Cedar Creek Electrical expects that you will:

- a) develop your skills and capabilities which are aligned to Cedar Creek Electrical 's strategy at the appropriate level, e.g. team or individual;
- b) participate in staff development review process in partnership with your line manager, including an annual review of your past development and identification of future plans;
- c) take personal responsibility to update your specific expertise on a regular basis, as appropriate to the nature of your job;

- d) identify any training and development opportunities and raise these with management for their consideration;
- e) contribute to team staff development where appropriate; and
- f) keep a record of your staff development activity.

Variations

Cedar Creek Electrical reserves the right to vary, replace or terminate this policy from time to time.
